Sales look lower. What should you check first?

Check the dates and coverage before drawing a conclusion about performance. Missing information is a possibility to test with the source owner.

Notice a difference

A site's recorded sales appear lower than expected.

Check completeness

Establish whether the expected days and records arrived.

Bring in context

Verify the feed or explore what changed with the team.

Agree the next step

Name an owner, the next check, and a review point.
